PRESERVING LEGENDS CELEBRATING HISTORY

In the realm of sports memorabilia, every autograph tells a tale - a piece of history etched in ink. For Carl Spiller and Saad Wadia, the founders of Fiber Sports Memorabilia, this journey began in childhood, with panini stickers and hand-drawn Adidas Predator boots as their youthful treasures.

A Shared Passion:

Childhood collectors turned entrepreneurs, Carl and Saad's paths intertwined through a mutual love for sports and its iconic artifacts. Saad's trajectory led him to establish a sports management company, now representing the legendary Ian Rush. Meanwhile, Carl, a seven-year England national team fighter, leveraged his contacts to make a mark in the sports memorabilia world.

From Passion to Business:

As their personal collections burgeoned, the need for a dedicated space became apparent. Carl fondly recalls how his house turned into a museum of boxes, prompting the birth of Fiber Sports

Memorabilia. Choosing Northern Ireland as their base, the duo aimed to bring their shared passion to the heart of Belfast.

Authenticity as a Hallmark:

Navigating the sea of sports memorabilia, Carl and Saad identified a prevalent issue - inauthentic signatures saturating the market. Fiber Sports Memorabilia emerged as a beacon of authenticity, ensuring only the finest and genuine signatures on authentic items grace their shelves. Customers can trust that each piece is a genuine slice of sporting history. Growing Legacy in Northern Ireland: Word quickly spread about the largest sports memorabilia shop in Northern Ireland, initially specialising in Liverpool and boxing memorabilia. The shop, featured in various news outlets, became a haven for sports enthusiasts. As Fiber Sports Memorabilia prepares for significant expansion in the next six months, the collection promises to transcend boundaries.

Mission Statement:

"Preserving legends, celebrating history" - this succinct statement encapsulates the ethos of Fiber Sports Memorabilia. Beyond being a business, it is a dedication to the stories embedded in each autograph and the rich tapestry of sporting excellence spanning decades.

Future Horizons:

As Fiber Sports Memorabilia continues to grow, Carl and Saad invite enthusiasts to join the journey by signing up for their newsletter at: www.fibersportsmemorabilia.com.

They have signings approaching with Bryan Robson, Chris Eubank, Cafu and Luka Modric, for a meet and greet event. Email or check out the website for more details.

In Belfast, Fiber Sports Memorabilia stands not just as a shop but as a testament to the enduring legacy of sports - a legacy that Carl Spiller, Saad Wadia, and their team are committed to preserving for generations to come.

A GREAT YEAR FOR FOOTBALL

AS I ENTER MY FOURTH YEAR AS IFA PRESIDENT, I AM MOVED TO REFLECT ON WHAT A GREAT YEAR IT HAS BEEN FOR FOOTBALL.

The recent Under 19 European tournament was a great opportunity to showcase Northern Ireland and what it has to offer. More than 200 volunteers signed up for the tournament to contribute across a variety of different disciplines, from drivers to team liaison officers, mascot chaperones, chaplains, and hospitality, with many coming from across the UK and Ireland, and some from as far away as Mexico, Nigeria and Scandinavia. Together they amassed an estimated 4,000 hours in just over a fortnight.

The friendly and welcoming nature of the group, their enthusiasm, commitment and desire to make the tournament a success was recognised by both UEFA and competing teams. Volunteering is at the very core of being a human and volunteers in football in Northern Ireland make a huge contribution across all parts of the game. Spain may have beaten France 2-0, watched by over 8,000 spectators, but the power of football and Northern Ireland were the real winners.

The money for football from what is now described as the Northern Ireland Football Fund has finally been released by the Department for Communities. Readers will know only too well how much our NI Football League grounds could benefit from improvements. Work is underway by DfC to allow the funds to be released in 2025/2026. The initial £36.2m, the sum that was promised originally, is a start but much much more investment is needed from government over many years to bring our football infrastructure up to the standard that is required. I trust that the politicians will deliver.

Cliftonville's long wait to win the Clearer Water Irish Cup for a ninth time ended. Remarkably, given that the Blues had won the cup a record 44 times and Cliftonville had lifted it on eight occasions prior to the game, it was the first time the two Belfast teams had met each other in the Irish Cup decider in 90 years.

A 3-1 victory over Linfield ensured the club's class of 1979 passed the baton to a new generation.

Jim Magilton's Cliftonville team bridged the 45-year gap the hard way in front of almost 15,000 fans at the National Football Stadium at Windsor Park. It was the biggest attendance in many years and showcased what a great product that local football has become.

The Clearer Water Irish Cup trophy was claimed thanks to two extra-time goals from Ronan Hale and another from Sam Ashford in normal time. The final goal from Hale was truly iconic and will live long in the memory for years to come. For my part, it was one of the best finals that I have watched.

League champions Glentoran Women secured the double by defeating Cliftonville Ladies in the final of the Electric Ireland Women's Challenge Cup. Cliftonville bossed the first half, but Glentoran turned on the style after the break and scored three goals without reply to retain the trophy in front of 1700 spectators at the National Football Stadium at Windsor Park. The Glens' fifth consecutive Irish FA Women's Challenge Cup success thwarted Cliftonville's efforts to secure a cup treble.

Larne FC finished the season with an emphatic 5-0 win over Coleraine to make it back-to-back Gibson Cups to add to the County Antrim Shield they also retained earlier in the season.

Immaculata defeated holders Crumlin Star in a penalty shoot-out in the final of the McComb's Travel Intermediate Cup. Immaculata goalkeeper Ruairi Murray was the hero, making several important saves.

Two second half goals helped Enniskillen Rangers defeat Cleary Celtic in the fonaCAB Craig Stanfield Junior Cup final at Stangmore Park. It was their fifth time as winners.

Larne FC showed the depth of talent in their club with their Under 18s beating Crusaders Under 18s 2-1 in the Harry Cavan Youth Cup.

At international level, results for the senior men's team were at best mixed over the 12-month period, however, the UEFA Euro 2024 qualifiers had finished on a high with a 2-0 victory over Denmark. 2024/2025 will be all about performances in the UEFA Nations League. Sadly, we saw Steve Davis and Stuart Dallas bring the curtain down on illustrious playing careers. However, the future looks bright with the JD Academy as a conveyor belt of young players ready and able to make the journey into full-time football in Scotland and England. It is really pleasing that under the watchful eyes of Aaron Hughes and Andy Waterworth, many have already been developed and are featuring in Michael O'Neill's squads.

The Senior Women's side enter the first round of the play-offs with Croatia in the Women's Euros. The Under 17 men reached the elite qualifying round of European Championship for the second year running.

The appointments of Tanya Oxtoby as senior women's team manager, Tommy Wright as Under-21 men's team boss, Gareth McAuley as men's U19 manager, Gail Redmond as boss of the women's U19 and U17 teams and Danielle McDowell Tuffey as girls' elite are all positive steps forward.

The current corporate strategy, A Roadmap for Football, which runs until 2027, continues to map out the way for football in Northern Ireland with many of the pillars well under way. One of those pillars, the association's first Sustainability Strategy, was launched and shows its continuing commitment to making things better in Northern Ireland in any way possible.

I look forward to another successful season for football and I wish all our teams every success.
